Re: ATX Communications, Inc. (FRN: 0012920237) WC 05-92
Notice of Pro Forma Transfer of Control of Domestic Section 214 Authorizations

Dear Secretary Dortch:

ATX Communications, Inc. ("ATX"), by its undersigned counsel and pursuant to Section 63.03(d) of the Commission's Rules,¹ hereby notifies the Commission of its Chapter 11 bankruptcy filing and the resulting pro forma transfer of control of certain of ATX's subsidiaries which hold blanket domestic Section 214 authority (those subsidiaries, collectively, the "Domestic 214 Subsidiaries," and each, a "Licensee").²

Specifically, on January 15, 2004, ATX and its subsidiaries, including the Domestic 214 Subsidiaries, filed voluntary petitions ("Petitions")³ for relief under Chapter 11 of Title 11 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code.⁴ The filing of the Petitions served to convert the legal status of ATX and that of each Licensee to a debtor-in-possession ("DIP"), which in turn resulted in the pro forma indirect transfer of control of the Licensees from ATX to ATX debtor-in-possession, and

² A list of the subsidiaries to which this notification pertains is attached hereto as Exhibit 1. Certain of ATX's subsidiaries also hold international section 214 authorizations and/or wireless licenses, for which applications for transfer approval were submitted to and granted by the Commission in 2004.

³ The petitions were filed in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (the "Bankruptcy Court"), and are being jointly administered. See In re CoreComm New York, Inc., Chapter 11 Case No. 04-10214 (PCB). The only subsidiary that did not file its petition on January 15, 2004 was CoreComm Maryland, Inc. which filed for Chapter 11 protection in the Bankruptcy Court on March 10, 2004.

forma indirect transfer of control of the Licensees from ATX to ATX debtor-in-possession, and the pro forma assignment of the domestic Section 214 authorization held by each Licensee to the holder as a debtor-in-possession.

The aforementioned pro forma transactions did not result in a change in the ultimate ownership or control of the lines or domestic Section 214 authorizations to operate held by the Domestic 214 Subsidiaries. The pro forma transactions also did not result in a change in the state of incorporation, address, telephone number or points of contact of the Domestic 214 Subsidiaries. Since filing the Petitions, the Domestic 214 Subsidiaries have continued to operate their businesses and manage their affairs as debtors-in-possession under the provisions of Chapter 11, and the reorganization process has not, thus far, had any material effect on the customers, employees or operations of the Domestic 214 Subsidiaries. Accordingly, the indirect transfer of control and assignment specified herein are and have been entirely pro forma in nature.

An original and one (1) copy of this letter are enclosed for filing. Kindly date-stamp the enclosed extra copy and return it to the undersigned. Please do not hesitate to contact us if you have any questions regarding this matter.

Respectfully submitted,
